

GUIDANCE FOR POSTER SUBMISSION

1. Abstracts and posters must be submitted in English.
2. An abstract must be submitted for each proposed poster.
3. It is the author's responsibility to submit a correct abstract. Any errors in spelling, grammar or scientific fact will be reproduced as typed by the author.
4. The presenting author must register to attend the conference. A place will be guaranteed for any successful poster application.
5. If no author is available to present a selected abstract, it will be withdrawn from the programme.
6. Notification of outcome of the abstract review process will be sent to the submitter. Only the person who submits the abstract online will receive email communication about the abstract. They are responsible for informing all co-authors about the outcome of the abstract's submission.
7. Any source of funding or support for the work being presented needs to be acknowledged.
8. Contributors should not use these sessions for marketing opportunities for new products, equipment or organisations, nor use the time to speak badly of competitors' products.
9. The author(s) for each abstract included in the AHPs in Research: Amplifying Impact programme transfers copyright to the NIHR to publish their abstract electronically and in other formats. The NIHR does not assume any liability or responsibility for publication of any submitted abstracts. The author(s) are able to pursue freely additional publishing outputs, such as articles in peer reviewed or professional journals or via other media outputs. The NIHR gives permission for the abstract to be included in such publications.
10. The author(s) retain the right, after presentation at AHPs in Research: Amplifying Impact, to include the work in articles, books, or derivative works that they author or edit provided said use does not imply the endorsement of the NIHR.
11. All posters presented during AHPs in Research: Amplifying Impact must include the same content and follow the same outline as that described in the submitted and accepted abstract. No exceptions will be made.
12. All decisions of the NIHR are final. This includes the format for which an abstract is accepted and the allocation to a conference theme.
13. Honoraria, fees or payment of expenses will not be provided by the NIHR for authors to present abstracts at AHPs in Research: Amplifying Impact.

In submitting an abstract you confirm that:

14. you accept responsibility for the accuracy of the submitted abstract and understand that the content cannot be modified or corrected after the submission deadline and that it will be published exactly as submitted.

15. all co-authors are aware of and agree to the content of the abstract and support the data presented

16. the submitter accepts responsibility as the contact person for all correspondence about the abstract and to share information with all authors about its status

17. you have secured any copyright/permissions clearance required relating to any previous posters, equipment or other material for inclusion in AHPs in Research: Amplifying Impact, its proceedings or other conference publications

18. for all studies involving human participants or animal subjects, permission has been obtained from the relevant regulatory authority and informed consent given where appropriate

19. anyone who is identifiable in the abstract and poster has given their consent to be included

20. the work is original, except for extracts from copyrighted works used with permission from the copyright holders, and that it does not infringe upon any copyright, proprietary, or personal right of any third party

21. you have identified any potential conflicts of interest e.g. financial interest in products or processes described in the abstract, stock ownership, membership on an advisory board or board of directors, or other substantive relationships

On behalf of all authors the submitter will confirm:

22. Transfer of copyright of the poster abstract/s presented at AHPs in Research: Amplifying Impact to the NIHR to publish electronically and in other formats

23. The author retains the right to publish their research elsewhere, or use the research for personal use or as part of their work, providing it does not compromise the NIHR's copyright.

24. Consent to have authors' names, affiliation and biographical material used in connection with the publication of the work
